

Marriott's OceanWatch Villas Celebrates Development Completion with Opening of Final Phase

Orlando, Fla. – May 4, 2010 – Marriott Vacation Club, the premier timeshare brand of Marriott International, Inc. (NYSE:MAR), announced today the final phase opening of Marriott's OceanWatch Villas at Grande Dunes in Myrtle Beach, S.C. The new phase reveals 75 additional two-bedroom, two-bathroom villas and brings the popular vacation ownership resort to completion. Adding onto the resort's existing 286 two-bedroom villas, the new villas bring the resort to a total of 361 occupiable villas, each with approximately 1,100 square feet of living space.

Nestled in the prestigious 2,200-acre Grande Dunes community and adjacent to the Myrtle Beach Marriott Resort & Spa at Grande Dunes, Marriott's OceanWatch Villas welcomes Owners and guests with a taste of southern living at its best. Each luxurious villa includes a fully-equipped kitchen with granite countertops, spacious living and dining areas, multiple televisions and DVD player, washer/dryer and a private balcony with sweeping ocean and garden views. Two-bedroom villas can accommodate up to eight guests.

"We are excited to open the final phase of villas at this fabulous resort, offering more luxurious accommodations for more families to enjoy in beautiful Myrtle Beach," said Michael Reilly, general manager of Marriott's OceanWatch Villas at Grande Dunes.

Owners and guests can enjoy a variety of amenities, including:

- Three outdoor pools, a children's pool, a slide pool and four whirlpool spas
- One indoor pool, a children's indoor pool and indoor whirlpool spa
- 2,500 square-foot fitness center featuring Life Fitness equipment, men's and women's locker rooms, sauna and steam rooms
