

For Immediate ReleaseMarriott Vacation Club Owner Services Named Utah Work/Life Award Winner for Third Consecutive Year

ORLANDO, Fla. – June 14, 2010 – Marriott Vacation Club’s Owner Services call center was recently named one of the ‘Best Places to Work’ by the Utah Department of Workforce Services’ Work/Life Awards for the third year in a row. Utah’s Work/Life Awards recognize excellence in the workplace and is known nationwide for its rigorous evaluation and application process.

“We are thrilled to be recognized as one of Utah’s ‘Best Places to Work’ for a third consecutive year,” said Lee Hall, general manager of Owner Services for Marriott Vacation Club. “We are committed to taking great care of our outstanding associates who in turn take care of our customers and continue to lead us to the highest levels of service and excellence.”

Marriott Vacation Club Owner Services is home to more than 475 associates and focuses on providing excellent customer service, worldwide reservations and Marriott Rewards assistance to over 400,000 Marriott Owners worldwide. Owner Services prides itself in offering flexible work schedules that allow associates to balance their work/home life; internal advancement and career growth opportunities; and direct manager to associate relationships.

Marriott's “Spirit to Serve” philosophy is also an important part of the company culture and few have been more committed to serving the greater Salt Lake City community than Marriott Vacation Club Owner Services. Within the last year alone, the group has served at more than 10 local charities and non-profit organizations.
