Marriott's Kauai Lagoons Says "Aloha" to First Guests

Orlando, Fla. - June 18, 2010 - Marriott's Kauai Lagoons welcomes its first Owners and guests tomorrow to the breathtaking island of Kauai. Situated alongside 38 acres of freshwater lagoons and overlooking the waters of the Pacific Ocean, the resort represents the third Marriott Vacation Club resort on Kauai.

A tropical paradise, Marriott's Kauai Lagoons features luxurious two-bedroom/two-bath and three-bedroom/three-bath villas ranging from 1,300 to 1,660 square feet of living space with modern, Hawaiian-inspired furnishings. From fully-equipped kitchens loaded with high-end stainless steel appliances, to huge living and dining areas and large lanais off each villa, guests will enjoy the best of island living with panoramic ocean and sunset views.

The resort's two-level swimming pool offers a peaceful oasis for sunbathers and families alike with stunning sights from the scenic Hawaiian overlook. Guests can also enjoy the nearby Kalapaki Beach and 18-holes of golf at the Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course, as well as access to retail outlets, spa treatments and unique oceanfront dining options at five open-air restaurants at the neighboring Kauai Marriott Resort and Marriott's Kauai Beach Club.
